

Statement on Swim Impersonation

Swim is aware that an individual has been falsely impersonating our CEO, Trimeka Benjamin, in engaging in the hiring of independent contractors on freelancing platforms, specifically through Freelancers.com.

To those who may have experienced any inconvenience or hardship due to this impersonation, we extend our sincerest sympathies. Please be assured that we are fully committed to pursuing all legal options to ensure that these individuals are brought to justice.

We have initiated a comprehensive investigation to identify those responsible for this deception and hold them accountable.

To ensure that our contractors understand the way that we engage with our contractors, we would like to provide some important information about how we conduct business at Swim Digital Group:
